Compliments of Senior Class of '22

Seniors of 55

Foreword

In this seventeenth edition of the Orano we, the Senior class of 1955, present to you the school life of the average student at Orangeville High School.

Dedication

To Mrs. Lucille Mains, we the Senior Class of 1955 dedicate our year book, the 17th edition of Orano.

We hope that in so doing we may impart to her our appreciation of her countless services to all as office secretary.

Her pleasant personality, sincere kindness, endless patience, deep understanding, and willing hands have made her deserving of this honor.

Senior Class History

Do you remember our first days as anxious "greenies" here in O. H. S.? Remember those last exciting games, when we knew that in the future we would return, but it would never seem quite the same? Remember the night we were handed our diplomas which meant to us a beginning of another step in life?

We seniors have been in many activities and have shown fine leadership

Most of all we must not forget our Senior boys who played so heartily in baseball and basketball. We are also proud of our three cheerleaders, Beverley Gross, Carol Herrmann, and Janis Fehr. Other seniors who received honors were Judy Folgate who won the "I Speak For Democracy" contest in this area; Pat Brookover who participated in the clarinet quartet which went down state; and Delores Reeser, Leila Sigafus, and Donna Gift who were members of the baton twirling squad which went down state. Donna Gift also went down state with her single in twirling.

We are sure that our class play, "Hats Off To Grandma," and our Christmas dance, "Snow Flake Swirl" was enjoyed by everyone

For the second time in our high school days we, as seniors, won the Magazine Drive.

Our class officers are as follows:

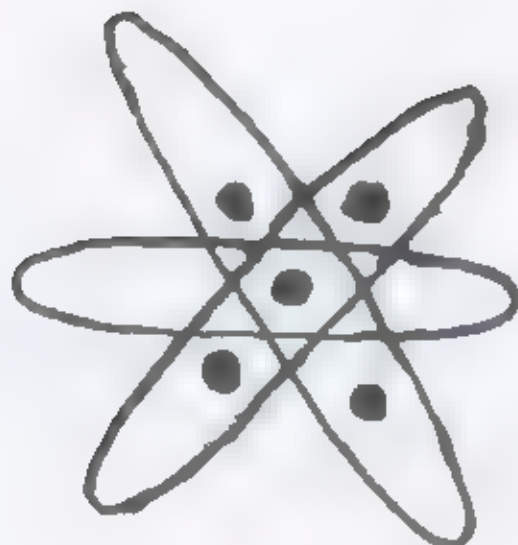

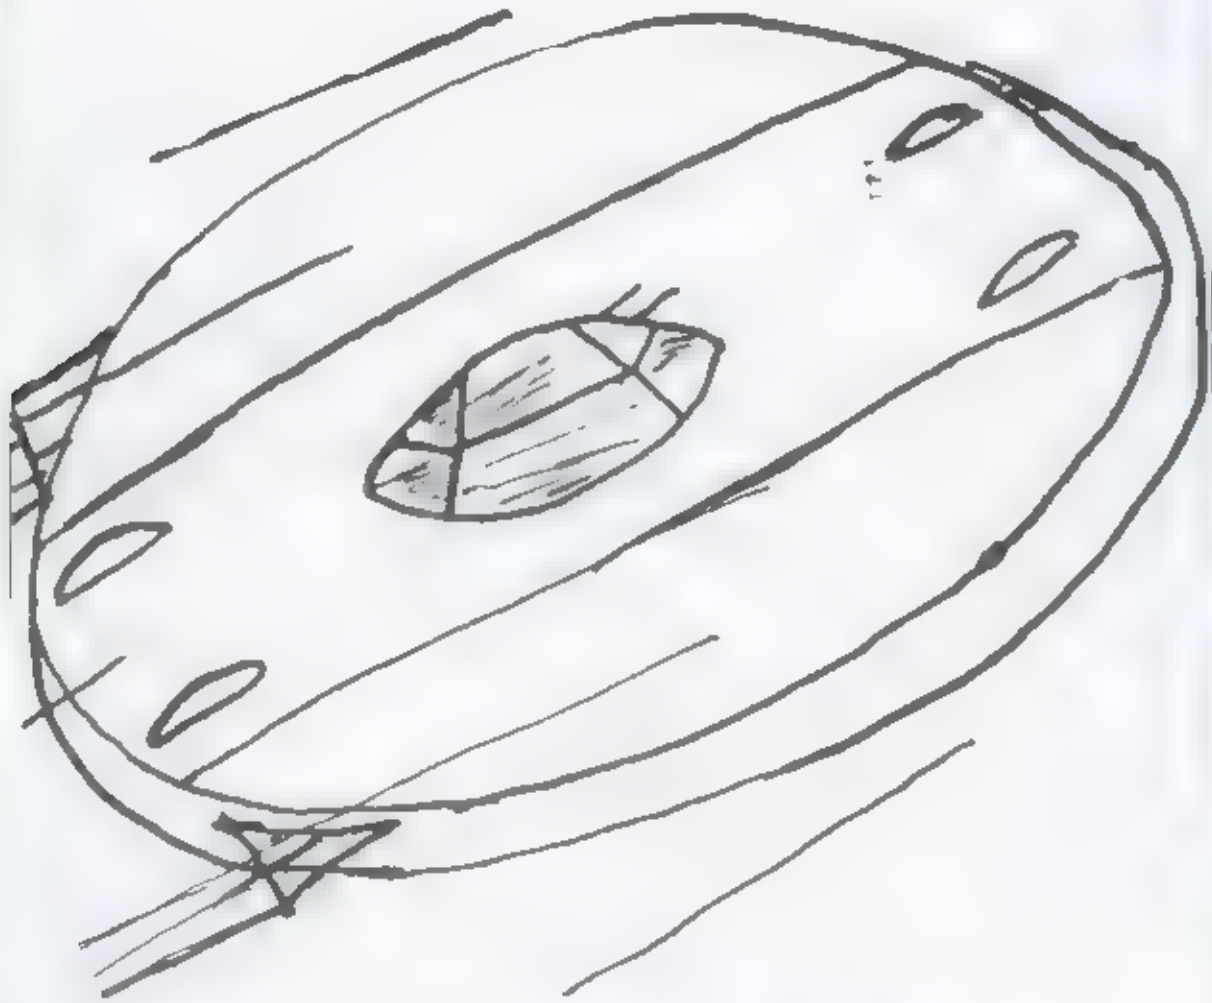

| | | | | | | | | |
|-----------------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| President | . | . | . | . | . | . | . | Ed Enzinger |
| Secretary | . | . | . | . | . | . | . | Joan Cantrill |
| Treasurer | . | . | . | . | . | . | . | Beverley Gross |
| Student Council | . | . | . | . | . | . | . | Leila Sigafus, Mary Homan Glen Wuthrich, and Ed Enzinger |

We thirty-five Seniors, wish to thank the teachers and all others who have helped us to make these four wonderful years possible.

GLADYS WAGNER is living very high now that she has moved to the Corn State with Les.
GLEN WUTHRICH has just opened the Wormy Peanut Factory in Shoeyville.

Farewell

The time is drawing nigh
That we must say good-bye
To teachers and friends
As our high school days end.
Freshman Stunt Night; the class plays—
"Hats Off To Grandma" and "The Happier We'll Be";
The Banquets and Proms; the Christmas dance;
They'll all live on in memory.
So will Sneak Day and Graduation;
The magazine drive that for three years our class won.
And now, remembering all these joys,
Let's have a word 'bout the girls and boys.
Pat Brookover is a brilliant soul;
Without effort she makes the A honor roll.
Joan Cantrill, always well-dressed, is seldom aloof;
This friendly soul will be 'Ma Hoof'.
Dave Crone is handsome and a Romeo born;
About this charmer, the girls we must warn.
A redheaded girl is Theresa Daughenbaugh;
She'll make some man a very good squaw.
A basketball player is Bill Dorsey;
This good-natured fellow is full of glee.
Ed Enzinger is a popular boy;
He is also filled with lots of joy.
A musical girl is Janis Fehr;
She is always quite debonaire.
Judy Folgate is a Senior, too;
She is always nice to you.
Another fellow is Elwyn Foss;
This boy is never cross.
A home ec. student is Donna Gift;
She'll run her home with lots of thrift
'Miss Personality' is Beverley Gross;
This popular girl is seldom morose.
Larry Heck has a musical flare;
With his trombone he likes to blare.
Carol Herrmann, as a cheerleader you all know;
Her smile has a special glow.
Carol Homan, she's a pearl;
At our class plays, she's best make-up girl.

Mary Homan is most benevolent;
Of F. H. A. she was President.
Harry Huber is a flirt;
His red hair must make him pert.
A good student is Judith Ann Hull;
She has brains underneath her skull.
Jo Ann Hurless is a loud and happy nut;
She just can't learn to keep her mouth shut.
Elaine Janicke is so slim;
Her waistline is very trim.
Arlene Jordan thinks her fate;
Is to have a Blacksmith for a mate.
Gene Lehman is a baseball fan;
He will drive a big sedan.
Joyce Lindenman seems quite shy;
But after you know her, she's sly and sly.
Jean Messinger sold lots in the magazine drive.
On any kind of sports, she'll thrive.
Nate Neuenschwander likes his car;
With it he will go far.
'Keep working' is Cynthia Phillips' creed;
In whatever she does, she will succeed.
We're talking 'bout Miss Resser, Dee;
Many big plans for the future has she.
A guy named Richards, meaning Jerry;
Keeps us all very merry.
Barbara Rockey transferred from Monroe last year;
We're surely glad that she is here
Big feet have nicknamed Bill Schmid;
For athletic honors he makes his bid.
A 'brainy' boy is Robert Schulz;
When he competes he has good results.
A tall fellow is Bill Schwarze;
He likes various kinds of sports.
Leila Sigafus is an acrobat;
She wins contests with Judy and Pat.
Stephen Switzer is so tall;
And his 'Kathy' is so small.
Gladys Wagner is so kind;
A nicer girl you'll never find
Glen Wuthrich, although short;
His athletic prowess, you cannot thwart.

We Seniors now must say good-bye;
But we'll never forget dear Orangeville High.

Junior History

Thirty-nine Juniors are still going strong. Class officers elected were: President, Iris Knodle; Vice-President, Nancy Bender; Secretary, John Barmore; Treasurer, LaVerne Barker, Student Council, Sharon Foss, Robert Davidson and Gary Rote.

Among the Broncos are Bill Blankenhorn, LaVerne Barker, Richard Stabenow, Robert Davidson, and Eugene Gross. We also have a cheerleader who is Sharon Freese.

The class members participate in many of the activities and organizations such as FFA, FHA, GAA, Band, Chorus, Teen Talk, Library, and Basketball.

Mr. Clayton Gardner is our adviser. His help and guidance is much appreciated.

Our class play was produced March 26. It was "Showdown at Saw-tooth" a mystery comedy. Mr. Thibodeau was our director. We also sponsored the prom and banquet for the "mighty" seniors. To raise money for our causes we sell BAR-B-Q's at the basketball games.

Sophomore Class History

The members of the sophomore class number thirty-eight.

With the supervision of Mr. Thibodeau, our adviser, we elected the following officers:

|-----------------|-----------------------------------|
| President | Beverly Blankenhorn |
| Vice-President | Jon Lausch |
| Secretary | Katherine Camenzind |
| Treasurer | Dick Rote |
| Student Council | Marvin Dunaway and Nancy Davidson |
| Reporter | Josie Moest |

We are well represented in F.H.A., F.F.A., G.A.A., band, teen talk, library, and basketball.

Sandra Rodebaugh and Beverly Blankenhorn are cheerleaders.

Music students went to Erie, Ill., March 12, to the District Contest and our Sandra Gross received a state rating for a flute solo and Sandra Rodebaugh received a state rating in the baton squad.

At a banquet on March 25, Dick Rote received a plaque from the DeKalb Seed Company for raising a good crop of corn.

Seventh Grade

This year there are forty four pupils in seventh grade.

We elected class officers and they are.

Eleven seventh graders went out for basketball. They are Richard Rinehart, Jim Rodebaugh, Gregory Molter, Creig Kleckler, Charles Nicks, Lester Frey, Roger Knutti, Roy Rockey, LaVerne Knutti, Carl Frank, and Fred Drye.

Two of the cheerleaders from Junior High are in the seventh grade. They are Joanne Kloepping, and Kathryn Davidson.

We have five different teachers in Junior High who teach all sections of seventh and eighth grade. They are Mrs. Baremore, Mrs. Shulthess, Mrs. Mays, Mr. Cole, Mrs. Dalton, and Mr. Kiburz, our music teachers.

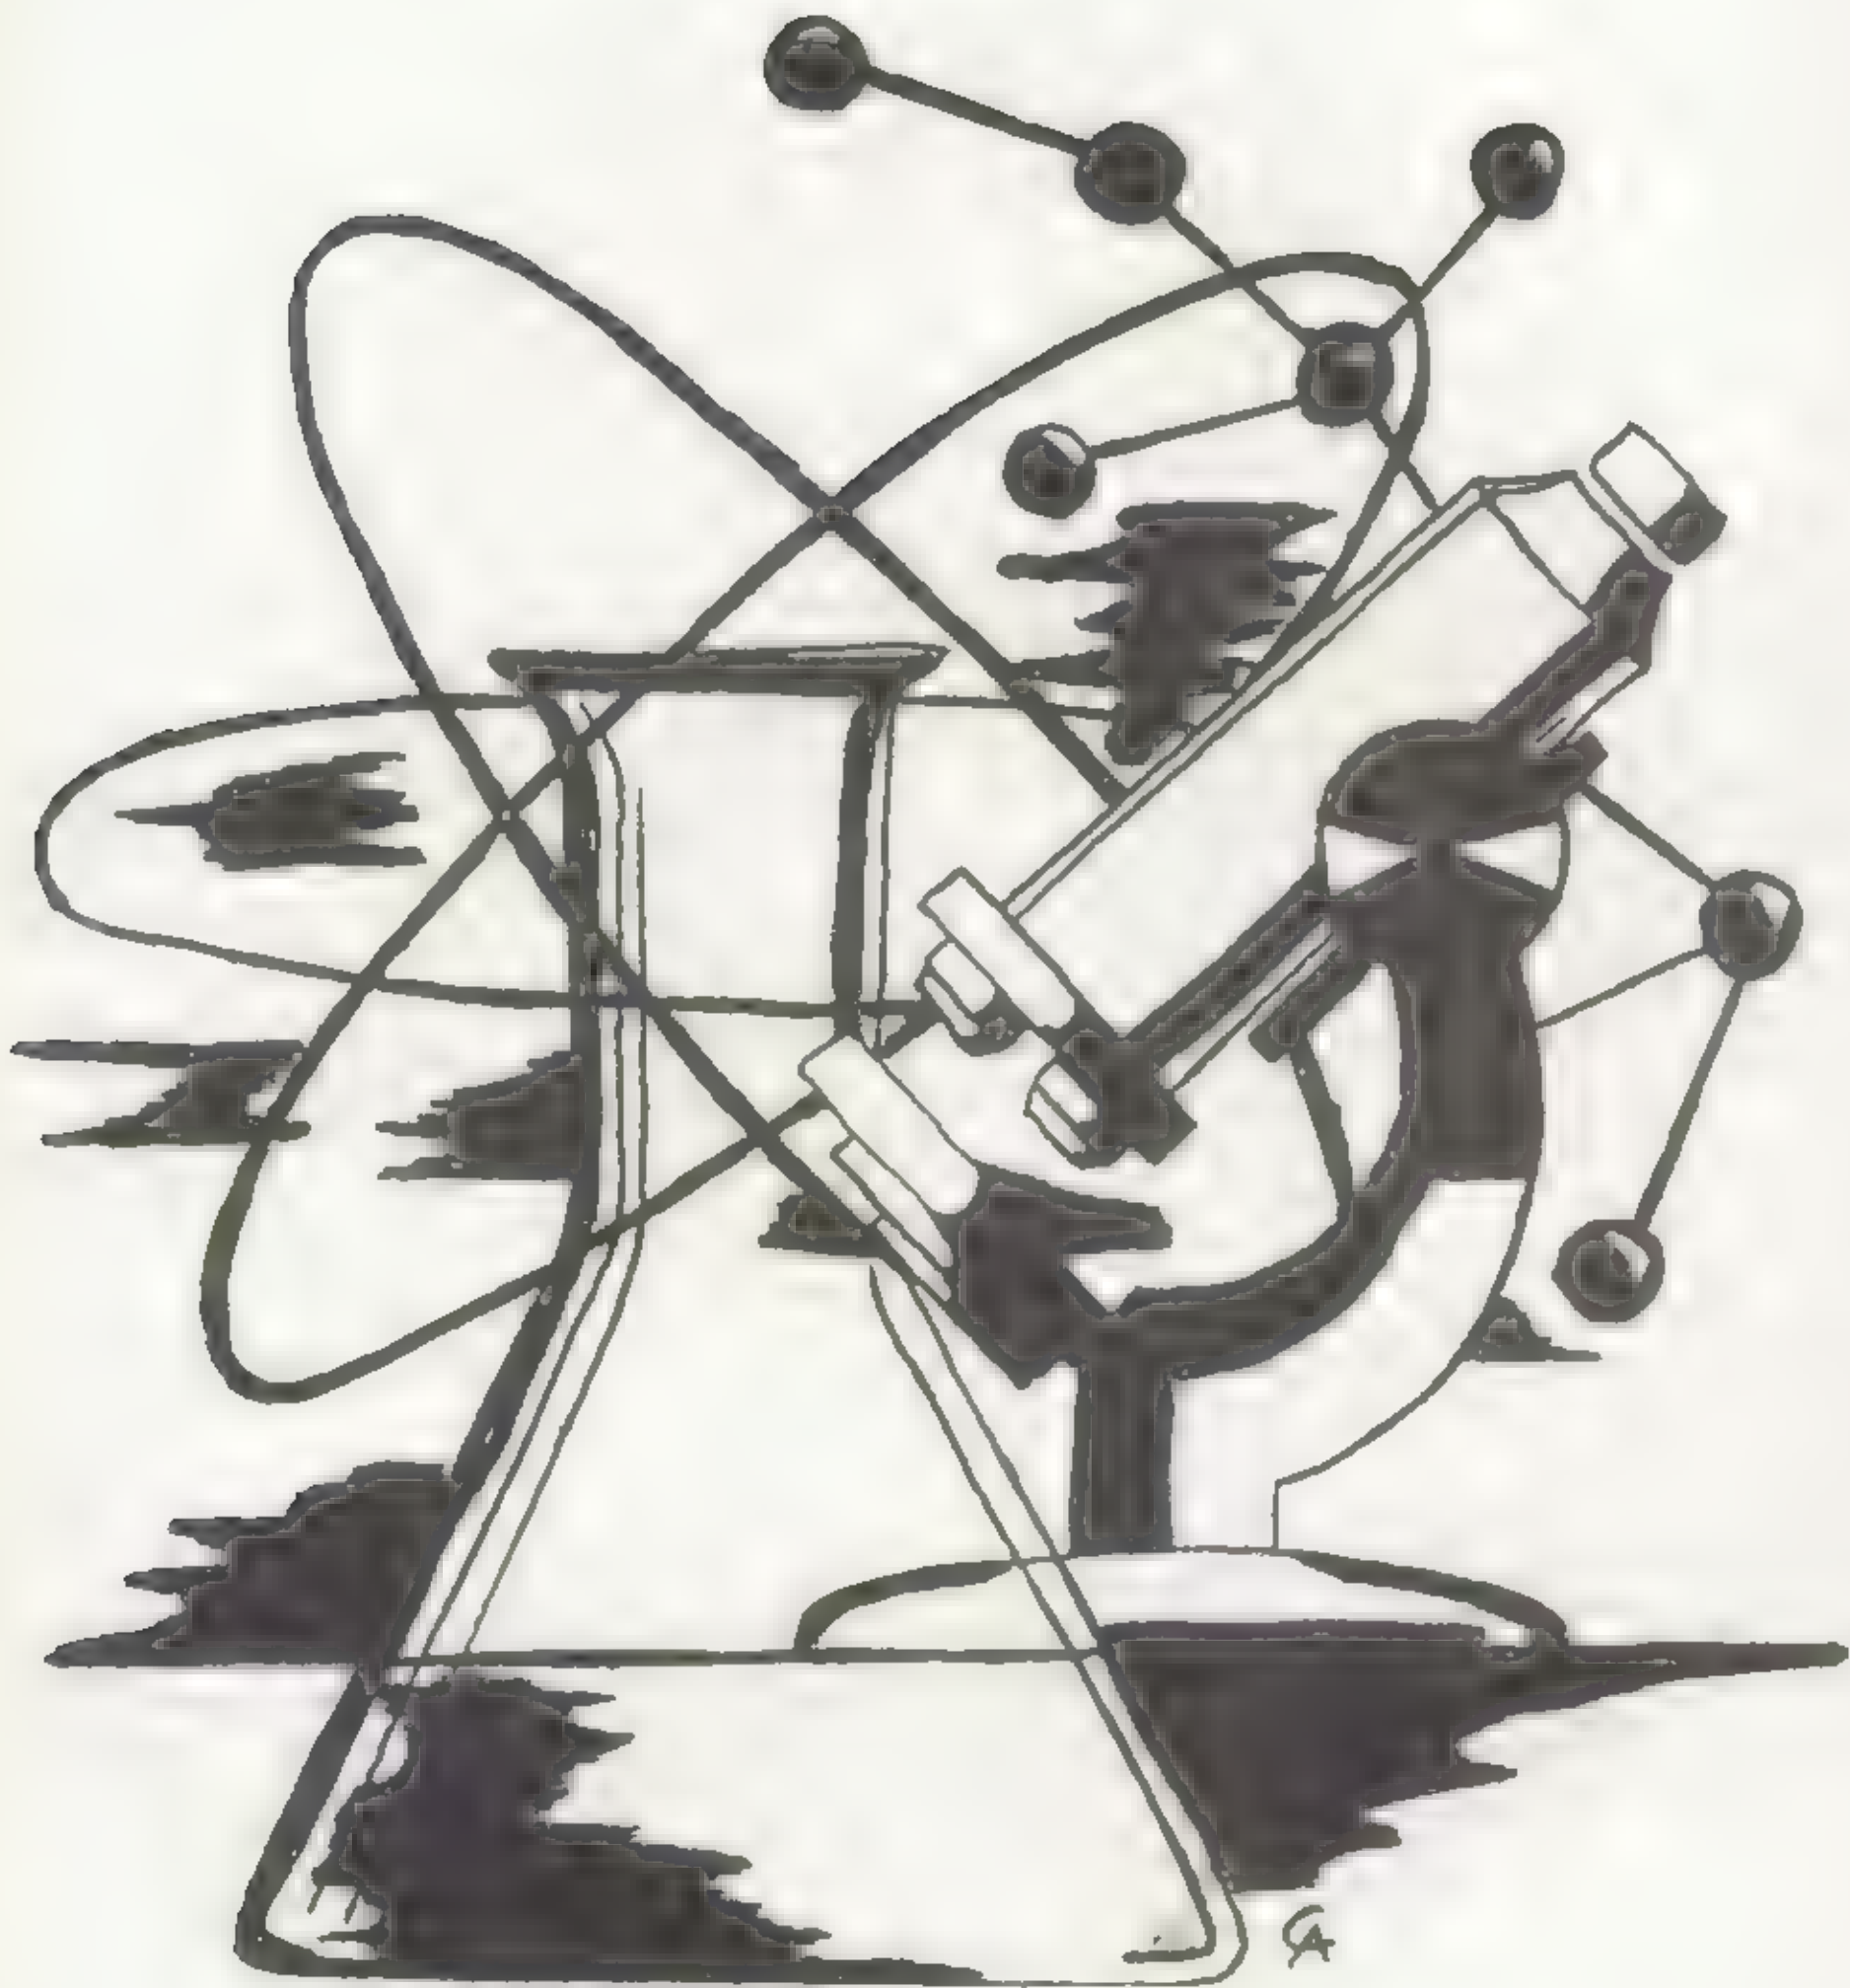

Eighth Grade

This year there were 36 eighth graders, but Donna Hahn left us. So that leaves 35 happy eighth graders.

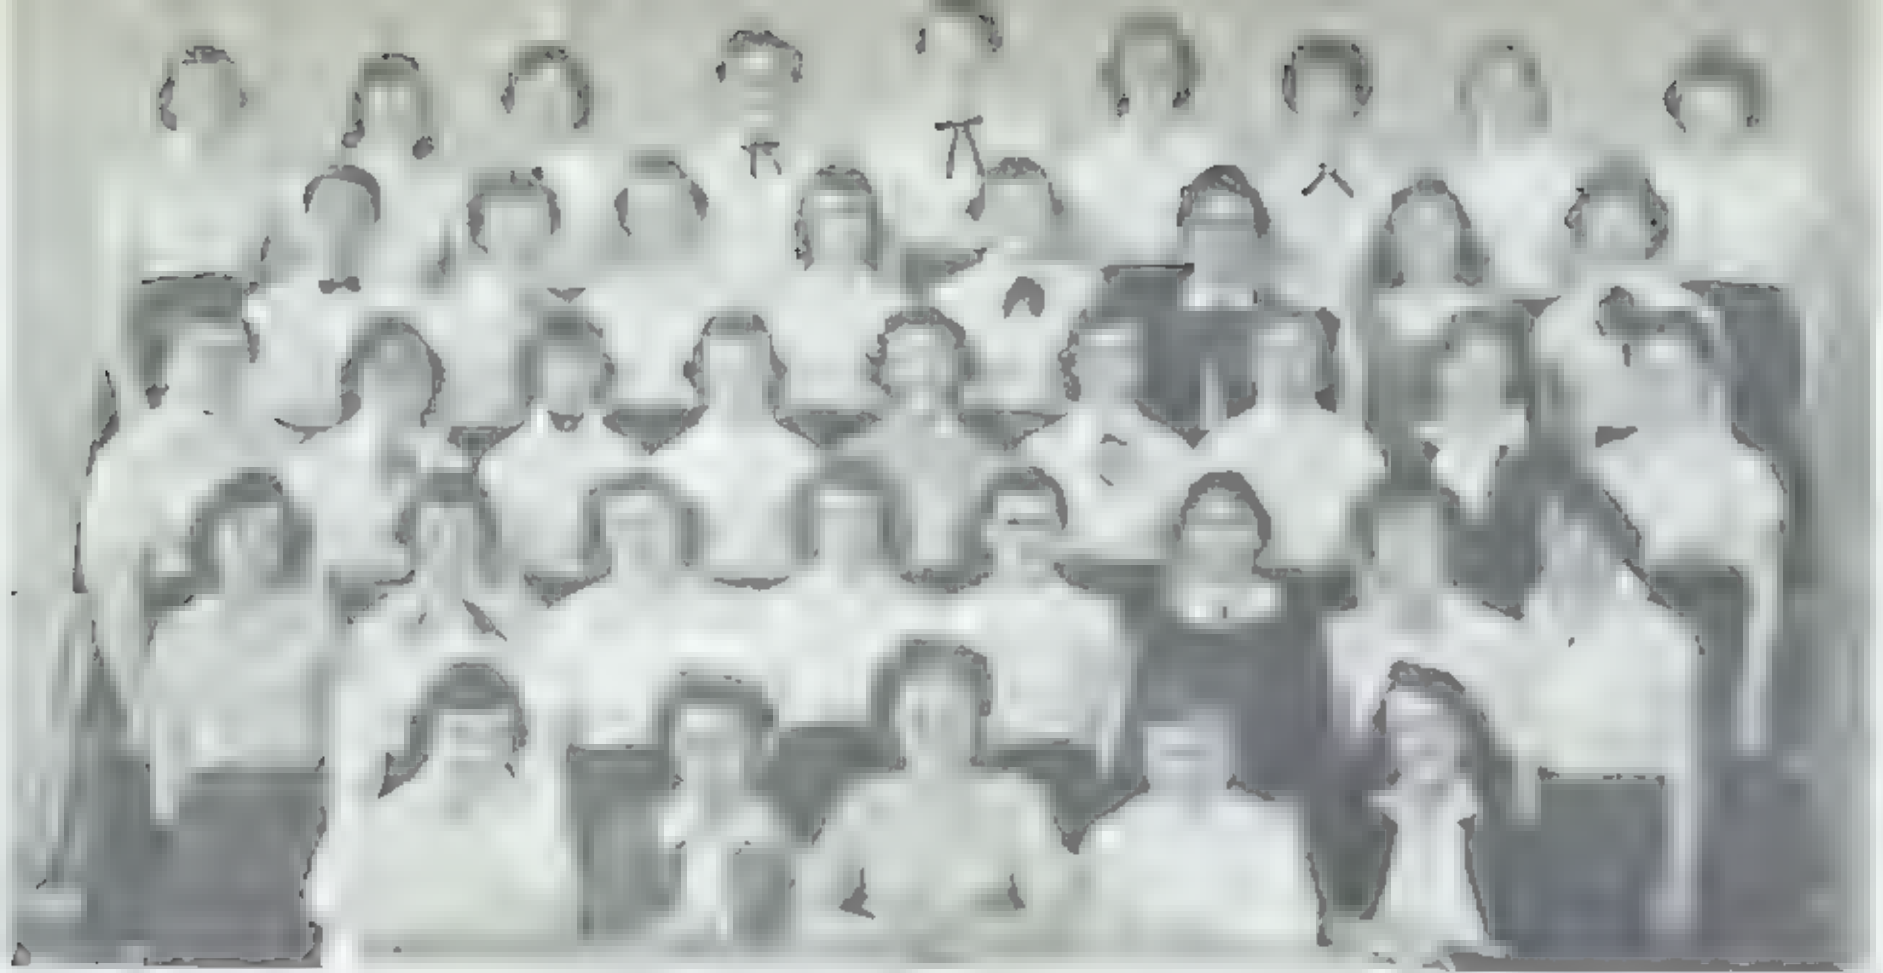

Mr. Cole and Mrs. Mays helped us elect our officers who are Peter Shianna, President; Bill Samuelson, Vice president; Gerry Rinehart, Secretary-Treasurer; and Joyce Griffin, a member of the Student Council.

Carol Kloepping, Bette Amans, Joyce Griffin and Judy Folgate are four of the six Jr. High cheerleaders.

We energetic eighth graders won the magazine Drive in the Jr. High. We'll be back trying harder next year when we are "Freshies."

FFA

The Orangeville Chapter of Future Farmers of America elected the following officers for 1954-55: President, Robert Schulz; Vice president, Ed Enzinger; Treasurer, Bill Blankenhorn; Secretary, Bill Schwarze; Reporter, LaVerne Barker; and Sentinel, Larry Heck.

Our chapter has 59 members this year. There are 22 greenhands, 36 chapter farmers and 1 state farmer. Four members from our chapter received the State Farmer Degree in June 1954, bringing our total to 39. Those honored were Robert Schulz, Wilbur Heck, Lauren Dunaway and Bob Blankenhorn.

Robert Schulz was elected 1954 sectional winner in dairy project work. Chapter winners were as follows: sheep—Wilbur Heck; dairy—Robert Schulz; swine—Bob Blankenhorn; beef—Ed Enzinger; corn—Larry Heck; poultry—Harold Leverton; farm mechanics—William Scheider.

Belva Schoonhoven was selected by chapter members as 1953-54 Chapter Sweetheart. Beverley Gross is the Chapter Sweetheart for this school year.

Honorary Degrees were awarded to Mr. Ray Folgate and Mr. Vernon Schulz at the Father and Son Banquet in November, 1954. Mr. Schulz is the father of Robert, our F.F.A. President. Mr. Folgate's three sons received State Farmer Degrees—Harold in 1934, Donald in 1940, and Larry in 1948. Larry was picked as one of two state winners in efficient milk production in 1949.

In 1954 the dairy team placed second in the section and in the blue ribbon division in the state contest. Members of the team were Harold Leverton, Robert Schulz and William Schwarze. The grain judging team — David Phillips, Jim Barmore, Ronnie Blankenhorn, Larry Scheider, Edward Busjahn and Robert Kaiser placed third in the section contest in November 1954.

Swine projects are the most popular productive projects with 31 members enrolled and dairy projects are next with 22.

Chapter members have a dairy herd improvement project with 27 herds in the school district on test. Testing are Larry Heck, Robert Schulz, Eddie Enzinger, Gary Rote, Albert Bilgri, Rodney Frank, LaVerne Barker, Eugene Gross, Robert Switzer, Keith Heitz, Douglas Schoonhoven, Marvin Dunaway, Larry Bear, Allen Leverton, Earl Lindenman, Larry Cline, Robert Bessert, Richard Meinert, Brian Brinkmeier, Delbert Zettle (two herds), Edward Busjahn, Duane Blasing, Richard DeHaven, Larry Scheider, David Phillips and Arlan Meyers. In the past year the herd average of all herds on test was 318 pounds of butterfat per cow.

Other activities in which the chapter participated during the past year include a corn picker safety campaign, pest eradication program in which 2801 pests were killed, county tractor rodeo for FFA members in October with five schools participating, Father and Son Banquet in November with 114 guests, and a swimming class at the YMCA in Freeport during April and May with 12 boys learning to swim and others taking advanced swimming.

Tribute to the Orangeville Broncos

Our Broncos are a scrappy bunch
 They surely pack a terrific punch.
 There is Glen, the steady boy
 He fills the coach's heart with joy.
 Then Bill Schmid, the great big man, always does the best he can.
 And big Bill Dorsey the rebound guy
 he's the kind who'll never say die
 Tony Barker, a real slick shot, keeps all opponents on the spot.
 Dick Stabenow is a forward sly,
 He puts the ball thru smooth as pie.

Bill Blankenhorn is another good shot, always in there, really hot.
 Bill Schwarze is the tallest lad,
 When he's playing it makes us glad
 Bob "Doc" Davidson, a junior reserve, plays the game with lots of verve.
 En Enzinger, a senior with a lot of fight,
 just the boy for a spot that's tight.
 Eugene Gross, last but not least,
 his skill has rapidly increased.
 The man behind this fighting team,
 Coach Dick Staas, the players' dream.

COACHES

Since Mr. Staas came to our faculty in January '54 he has achieved high recognition as a coach, teacher, and a fine friend. We are looking forward to his being our varsity coach for years to come.

Our Frosh-Soph coach, Mr. Cole, in the last two years has produced championship teams. He also coached the grade school team to many victories the last seasons. BRAVO TO COACH COLE!!

Hats Off To Grandma

On November 5, 1954, the Senior Class presented a three act comedy drama, entitled "Hats Off To Grandma" by J. Vincent Barrett, under the direction of Mrs. Karl Koch.

The story revolves around the mischievous prank of a wealthy old lady who gets tired of her social existence and on the spur of the moment, answers an ad in the paper for a cook. "Annie" as she calls herself, goes to work for the Talmadge family in a small community and immediately finds herself involved in the problems of all concerned. Naturally none of the Talmadges know that "Annie" is a famous millionaire. Not even the audience knows this until the last act. They think she is simply a darling old lady who has come to their house as a cook and has endeared herself to each and everyone of them by the wonderful manner in which she straightens out their individual problems.
